

INTRODUCING: 2011-2012 ATOMIC STEVE LEINWAND TEACHING GRANT

Steve Leinwand spent 22 years as Mathematics Consultant with the Connecticut Department of Education where he was responsible for the development and oversight of a broad statewide program of activities in K-12 mathematics education including the provision of technical assistance and professional development, the evaluation of Title 1 and K-12 mathematics programs, the assessment of student achievement and teacher competency, and the coordination of statewide mathematics programs and activities. Steve has also served on the NCTM Board of Directors and has been President of the National Council of Supervisors of Mathematics.

Visit www.atomicmath.org for grant requirements and information. Grant applications are accepted on an ongoing basis.